The Management/Supervision Program is designed to prepare students for undertaking responsibilities in the Management area and increase the abilities of those already in the field. In addition, with Psychology and other business-related course work, students may continue for advanced study at the university level in select management careers.

The program includes the basic concepts of planning, organizing, and controlling as they evolved from the contributions of early leaders in the Management movement.

Also reviewed are current-day practices and research data relating to leadership styles, motivation, team building, and other aspects of organizational behavior, personnel, and office management.

Upon completion of this program, students should be able to:

- 1) Demonstrate communication and analytical skills for business management functions as well as case studies.
- 2) Apply knowledge of the process, practice and theory of management principles.
