How to Apply

If you plan to attend Southwest under one of the veteran's bills, you must should schedule an appointment with Yvette Tucker located in the Admissions office in the Student Services Building, room 102 or 323-241-5440.

Several weeks are needed for the Veteran's Administration to process subsistence payment applications. An early start with our veteran's counselor is advisable.

A credit of six college units may be applied to veterans for time served in the armed services. Elective credits will be granted, when requested, along with the application for graduation.
