(SLO 1) Which of the following best describe the characteristics of a scholarly journal?

a) Publications are typically published weekly
b) Articles are in depth and often have a bibliography
c) Articles are written by author(s) with academic credentials
d) Publications have a lot of color photographs
e) B and C

(SLO 3) You are searching for articles on the impact of television violence on children. Identify the search words in the previous sentence that you would use to research this topic in a library database to get the best results:

a) impact or television
c) violence
d) children
e) television violence and children

(SLO 4) Which of the following is TRUE about evaluating websites?

a) You do not need to evaluate sites that are from organizations
b) Sites with a web address ending in “.org” are ALL OK to use
c) You need to evaluate every website before using the information

(SLO 2) Which is best for locating a book for a research paper

a) Google
b) LASC Online Catalog
c) Online Periodical databases
d) none of the above

(SLO 5) Copying text from a web site without identifying the source is an example of:

a. Fair use
b. Plagiarism
c. Acceptable use because everyone does it
d. A copyright violation (SLO1): If your professor asks you to find a scholarly journal article on a health related topic, what would you look for to determine if it is a scholarly article?

a) Articles written by experts on the subject
b) List of sources used at the end of the article (bibliography)
c) Tables or charts with statistics
d) A lot of color pictures
e) A-C

(SLO6): The LASC Online Catalog will help you locate:

a) Print and some electronic books
b) Newspaper articles
c) Website

(SLO4): Your Professor wants to make sure you make good judgments when using information from websites. What questions should you ask when using websites?

a) Is there bias present? Does the site promote a specific opinion or view on the topic?
b) Is the information factual and error-free? Can it be verified?
c) How current is the information presented?
d) All of the above

(SLO3): You are looking in a database for journal articles discussing the treatment of alcoholism. Which search words would give you the best results?

a) Alcoholism
b) Alcoholism AND treatment
c) Treatment of substance abuse
d) None of the above

(SLO 5): “Plagiarism” is:

a) To use or copy another’s work, word for word without citing it
b) A disease
c) Copying out of an encyclopedia without telling your instructor where you found the information
d) A and C

(SLO 2) To find a book on a topic, you use:

a) An online periodical database
b) The Library Catalog
c) A website