

Anthropology AA-T

The Associate in Arts in Anthropology for Transfer Degree is intended for students who are planning to transfer to a California State University (CSU) institution into the Anthropology Bachelors program. The Student is guaranteed admission to a CSU upon completion of this program. The Transfer Degree is designed to provide students with a Transfer Model Curriculum and introduce students to the study of human diversity and to enable students to apply critical thinking and written oral and communication skills to the analysis of contemporary global human issues. The program will prepare students for a wide variety of educational pursuits and careers that require cultural awareness and competence.

The Associate in Arts in Anthropology for Transfer Degree requirements include: (1) completion of 60 CSU transferable units, including the minimum 18 units in the major and the completion of either IGETC or CSU GE; (2) a minimum GPA of 2.0.

Students should meet with a counselor to determine the necessary course work to complete the general education requirements.

Los Angeles Southwest College Associate Transfer Degree

Senate Bill (SB) 1440 and the California Education Code (CEC) section 66746 require students seeking an Associate in Degree for Transfer to:

- (1) Complete 60 semester units of 90-quarter units that are eligible for transfer to the California State University, including both of the following:
 - a. The Intersegmental General Education Transfer curriculum (IGETC) or the California State University General Education-Breadth Requirements
 - b. A minimum of 18 semester units or 27 quarter units in a major or area of emphasis, as determined by the community college district.
- (2) Obtainment of a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

ADTs also require that students must earn a C or better in all courses required for the major area of emphasis. A “P” (Pass) grade is not an acceptable grade for courses in the major.
