COSTA RICA
GO EXPLORE! GO ABROAD!
Short-Term Study Abroad Programs
In Partnership with the International Student Services

Where in the World would you like to be in summer 2013?

HUMAN WAYS OF LIFE
ANTHROPOLOGY 102
COSTA RICA
This is a 3 unit course and is CSU and UC transferable.

This course is an introduction to the field of socio-cultural anthropology and examines the diversity of human life around the world. Topics covered include the "culture" concept and ethnography; language, family, gender, and religion; social stratification and inequality; economic and political systems; cultural change and contemporary globalization.

This course will visit natural and cultural sites throughout Costa Rica, including Arenal, Monteverde, and the Santa Elena cloud forest. Students will experience a volcano, waterfalls, hot springs, and a coffee plantation, as well as plant a tree and participate in a tree canopy adventure.

Approximate Cost:
$2,180-$2,348

Included:
- Airfare
- Land & water transport
- Accommodations (including 3 meals a day)
- Excursions & Activities
- Experiential learning activities
- Site entrance fees

Not Included:
- Course Tuition ($78)
- Passport fee
- Personal Expenses

Financial Aid available!

Deadline—Full payment due June 1, 2013
(note: price increases with later registration)

Course taught by Professor Angela Jenks

For an application form contact either:
Angela Jenks
jenksa@lasc.edu

International Education Office. RM 116, Student Services Building.

See Angela Jenks for an add slip to register.

Dates subject to change

In cooperation with:
Los Angeles Southwest College, Los Angeles
International Student Services & Behavioral and Social Sciences