

Introducing Ask a Counselor!

Our new quick-question e-mail service lets you ask our counselors general questions online about degree requirements, transfer information, course offerings, and more.

Contact us at askacounselor@lasc.edu, request general information, and our counselors will respond with an answer within two business days.

Ask a Counselor by email about:

- College procedures and policies
- Certificate, degree and transfer requirements
- Course prerequisite information
- Course offerings and majors
- Referrals to other programs and services
- Transferable courses at Southwest

Drop by our office to ask about your:

- Education plan
- Transcript evaluations
- Graduation checks
- Personal or crisis counseling
- Career counseling
- Financial aid appeals
- Academic and progress probation

Note: Not all questions can be fully answered via our online service. Questions requiring more detail may require an appointment with a counselor on campus. Please be aware that there can be no assurance of confidentiality when using this online service. All replies from counselors are advisory and informational only and will not constitute an official determination by LASC.
