Los Angeles Southwest College
Supplemental Instruction Leader
Job Description

What is Supplemental Instruction (SI)?
At Los Angeles Southwest College supplemental instruction acts as an academic assistance program that is meant to help students’ improve their academic performance. At the core of supplemental instruction is the student. The SI leader acts as a facilitator, creating an interactive and collaborative learning environment for LASC students.

Benefits of being an SI Leader?
- Paid professional experience in helping students succeed academically.
- Build relationships with faculty, other SI leaders, and students enrolled in the course.
- Develop skills that help you facilitate student learning.
- Expand and diversify your resume.

Minimum Qualification
- Must be a fulltime student at LASC or at another accredited undergraduate or graduate institution.
- Must be in good academic standing.
- Must demonstrate excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Maintain ethical professionalism
- Demonstrate knowledge of the supplemental course they would like to lead.
- Availability to attend all scheduled lectures for the course
- Able to work independently and in a group setting.
- Demonstrate sensitivity to working with diverse student populations.

Expected Responsibilities of a Supplemental Instruction Leader
- Attend all scheduled lectures for the course.
- Attend all scheduled supplemental instruction sessions
- Prepare for SI sessions
- Attend any training sessions
- Meet with professors
- Turn in required paperwork by due date

Pay range: To be determined and based on experience. Can range from $9.20—$15.46/Hour.

Position type: This is a part-time position, hours can range between 8 to 24 hours per week.

If you have any further questions please contact:

Erica Ruiz, SI Coordinator
Email: ruizer@lasc.edu
Phone: 323-241-5354